I state the tirt; ami I state that fact to draw from it the conclusion, and to express the hope that there will bo an endeavor to check this violence of party. What vicissitude do we not pass through in this short mortal existence of ours! Eight years ago, I took my leave finally, and - as I supposed-forever of this body. At that time I did not conceive of the possibility of being again returned to it; and if any private wishes and particular inclination, and the desire during the short remnant of my days to remain in repose and quiet, could have prevailed, you would never have aeon me, sir, occupying the scat which I now do upon this floor. The Legislature of the State to which I belong, unsolicited by me, chose to designate me to represent them ir. this Senate and Have come here, in obedience to a nemo of tem duty, with no personal objects - no private views now or hereafter to gratify. I know, sir, the jealousies fears, and apprehensions which arc engendered by the spirit of party to which I bine referred i and if there be uny in my hearing now-if there be in or out of this Capitol - anyone who is running the race for honor, and for elevation - for higher honor, for higher elevation, than that which he may enjoy - I beg him to believe that I at least vref never...
