Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Women in the Government Service For many years people interested in securing equality of opportunity for women workers have felt that this equality did not exist in the Government service, the place above all others where every citizen of the country should be assured of opportunity similar to that of his or her fellow workers. Because of the tremendous influx of women into new occupations during the war, and the consequent general recognition of their abilities along many different lines, it was felt that the time was ripe for discovering to what extent the new attitude toward women workers had penetrated the various branches of the Government service. With this object in view the Women s Bureau of the United States Department of Labor arranged to make a study of positions in the Government service open by examination to women as compared with those closed to women. The study was begun in September, 1919. Part I was completed on October, 16, and on October 27 was submitted to the Civil Service Commission. The chief emphasis...
