Dix, of New York, on the Three Million Bill: Delivered in the Senate of the United States, March 1, 1847 The Bill appropriating Three Million of Dollars to enable the President to enter into negotiations for the restoration of peace with Mexico being under consideration - Mr. Dix said: Mr. President: I intended to address the Senate on the general subject of the war; but being always more ready to listen than to speak, I have given way to others, who were desirous of presenting their views to the Senate. And I have done so with pleasure, because I knew that they were much more capable than myself of enlightening the judgment of the Senate on the questions before it. I have thought the occasion as appropriate one for recurring to the principles on which our Government was founded; of reviewing its progress; of entering into a critical survey of our position as a nation, for the purpose of estimating intelligently our responsibilities to ourselves and others; of seeing wherein...
