A bold, brilliant tale of mystery, revenge, and survival in the 1980s, when cocaine and money ruled the city streets and even the good guys wanted a piece of the action. Its March madness and the college boys are playing basketball on TV. But on the streets of D. C. , the homeboys are dealing, dissing, dying. From behind plate glass, with an 80s backbeat pounding in his brain, Marcus Clay watches it all happen, and prays that he can make a go with his downtown record store. Then a car comes careening down U Street, and what Marcus sees next will plunge him into the middle of a war. A drug runner is decapitated in the crash. A bystander--a white boy desperate to buy a womans love--snatches a bag of cash from the wreck, and a prince of crime wants it back. For Marcuss buddy, Dimitri Karras, the mayhem is a chance to make a score. For a pair of dirty cops its a chance to get free. And for dozens of lives swept up into the maelstrom, its just another springtime in Americas capital, where the game is played for keeps. This item ships from multiple locations.
