You now receive the Danish and Swedish Dictionaries of Wolffe and Serenius: the latter (particularly with both parts together) is a very scarce book, and cost, I confess, rather more than I expected; but I question if another copy is to be had in London. Who is Malone? --Where are my Cursory Criticisms P No. 12430 (Peter the Great) in Lackingtons catalogue was sold; and so, unfortunately was the Swedish grammar, which I despair of recovering. No. 12433, is a heap of trash: you had an article or two from it some years since. I thank you for the errata in Robin Hood, which I could scarcely have believed. You need not have been afraid to indulge conjectures, as it would be sufficient to point out the corrupt or suspicious passage. Minot, I am persuaded, is more...
