Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The New Opportunities of the Ministry Mr. Lynch has amply proved his case, which is to present the opportunities afforded by the modern ministry. Men who want to make the most of their lives must consider the claims in the various branches of religious work. The immense need for leadership in education, in scholarship, in social adjustment, in missionary enterprise, which Mr. Lynch establishes, itself constitutes a call to some men. Phillips Brooks shortly before his death said that the next twenty years would offer greater Opportunity for the Christian minister than any other like period in history. I think this little book proves the contention, presenting some of the needs of our time that must be met if we are to make true progress. Some of the finer spirits who read it will surely learn from it a nobler conception of personal duty. There are movements of our time which show the essentially religious character of the age, such as the movement towards church unity, the great missionary movement, the international...
